- Garage en-bloc

About the property

A village setting, superbly presented and with a cracking rear garden! This lovely three bedroom home comes to the market offering bright, light and airy accommodation in excellent decorative order with the bonus of a garage en-bloc too.

Rookley is a quiet village, central to the island and with stunning rural countryside walks on the doorstep including cycle tracks and a regular bus service which can ensure you can access all of the island with relative ease. The property itself sits walking distance of the Co-op store, community centre, post office and more. There is also the popular Chequers Inn, a family pub, renowned on the island.

Internally, the property offers an open plan lounge/diner with a modern kitchen too. In addition, the property has a downstairs WC and conservatory overlooking the rear garden. The first floor comprises three bedrooms and a family bathroom. The property benefits from some wonderful countryside views.

The garden is an impressive space with a lot more than you would typically imagine. A private, sunny and well sized area, it makes for the ideal family garden particularly with pets and kids in mind.
