Property Details

Tibi, Alicante 03109

€495,000

Welcome to a spacious rustic manor house, built in 1909, that offers a unique opportunity for a remarkable living space. The property includes three caves that can be transformed into additional accommodation. Nestled at the foothills of Maigmó, this house provides a private gateway to the mountains while being conveniently located near Alicante city center and the airport. With a vast land area and enchanting gardens, including almond and olive plantations, the property offers a sustainable lifestyle with a cistern and solar panels. The interior features six double bedrooms, two living and dining rooms with fireplaces, a kitchen, and multiple bathrooms. Outside, there is a charming front garden, two barbecue areas, and a playground. The owner is pursuing a certificate of Urbanistic compatibility, which will unlock the property's true potential
