Salinas, Alicante 03638

€34,500

We are proud to present this great townhouse renovation in Salinas, Alicante.

The property is just over 135m² and has 5 bedrooms and 1 large family bathroom. There is a good-sized internal patio which would make a great entertaining area.

The house has a lot of potential, and would make a great investment property for long-term rent or Air BnB (once you have obtained the relevant paperwork).

Salinas is a small village of just over 1500 people, but has all your day-to-day living needs such as shops, pharmacies, schools, bars, and a doctor's surgery. Sax is a much larger town with big supermarkets, train station, and bus routes. It is well known for its gastronomy, and is only around 35 minutes to Alicante airport and beaches.
