About the property

A beautiful modern apartment sat in the new development of St Georges Gate. This two bedroom home comes to the market in fabulous condition where by the next lucky owners will have very little to do except decide where to put the furniture. Offered Chain Free, it's also the easy choice for anyone looking to move in quickly without any hold ups.

Walking distance of the Asda Superstore, the cycle track and a nearby bus stop. The property also sits close to Schools, the Newport High Street and plenty of green spaces.

Entry is via a secure entry phone system through well maintained communal areas. The apartment itself is well sized, bright and airy with the current owner having looked after the property very well. The bedrooms are both double with a modern bathroom whilst the open plan living space offers a far reaching view within a sociable, open plan space.

Outside, the property benefits from an allocated parking and access to a locked bike store and bin store. The building remains under an NHBC warranty currently.
