A fantastic opportunity to acquire this character home nestled in the heart of this popular Devon village with two bedrooms, loft room, courtyard garden and roof terrace providing views over the village.

A door at the front of the property opens into the vestibule providing a perfect space for coats and shoes. From here a door opens into the lounge/diner which features a woodburning stove set in a large ancient beamed inglenook fireplace. There is space for dining table and chairs, windows to three sides of the property and a door opening to the kitchen. Fitted with a range of wall and base level units the kitchen has a halogen glass hob with electric single oven under, one and a half bowl stainless steel sink unit, integrated dishwasher, space for fridge freezer and space and plumbing for washing machine. A double glazed window over looks the courtyard garden and a door provides access. Two steps from the kitchen lead to a double glazed door which provides access to the alleyway at the side of the property.

On the first floor and accessed by a staircase from the living room is the master bedroom en-suite, further double bedroom and the family bathroom. The master bedroom is a light and airy room, with good views from it's window and has the benefit of an en-suite fitted with shower cubicle, low level WC and wash and basin. Bedroom two, slightly larger than the master bedroom, has a window to the front of the property. The bathroom is fitted with suite comprising panelled bath with electric shower over, pedestal wash and basin and low level WC. From the landing stairs rise to the loft room where there are doors providing access to eaves storage and steps lead to a large window opening to the delightful private roof terrace which enjoys views over the village.

Archway Cottage is freehold and connected to all mains services with gas fired central heating.
Council Tax band: D - Teignbridge District Council.
