We are offering for sale this rustic villa in a most beautiful and tranquil rural location. The house sits on an elevation and the expansive views from the plot are wonderful: stretches of olive groves in the valley and mountain ridges. This location is a beautiful spot between the towns of Yecla and Caudete beneath the foothills of Sierra de Santa Bárbara. There are 3 hectares of productive olive grove that come with the house. Outside there is a pool and a plunge pool which haven't been used for a while and will need renovating. The house needs updating and adapting to the needs of a new owner. Currently, there are two bedrooms, a kitchen, lounge with a fireplace and a bathroom across a small tiled courtyard. Adjacent to the property is a large shed/garage which could become additional living space. There is also a large second floor space ready to be made into a luxurious master suite or a few additional bedrooms. The second floor has an exit onto a terrace/solarium with most amazing panoramic views of the area.
