Full Description

We are delighted to offer to the market an opportunity to rent for 6-12 months, this beautifully presented four bedroom detached house located in a popular road in the sought-after village of Chinnor, Oxfordshire. The property is set back from the main road, and enjoys far reaching views over farmland. The house is offered to the market for a short period of time and would be perfect for a family needing a property whilst carrying out renovations at their main residence or for a family needing a property in-between a property sale/purchase.

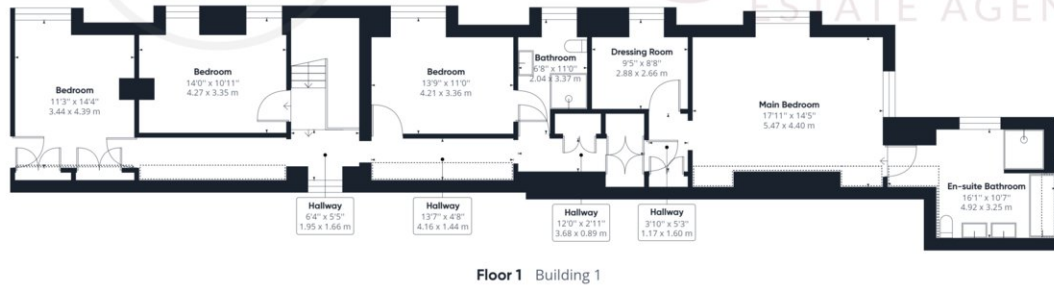

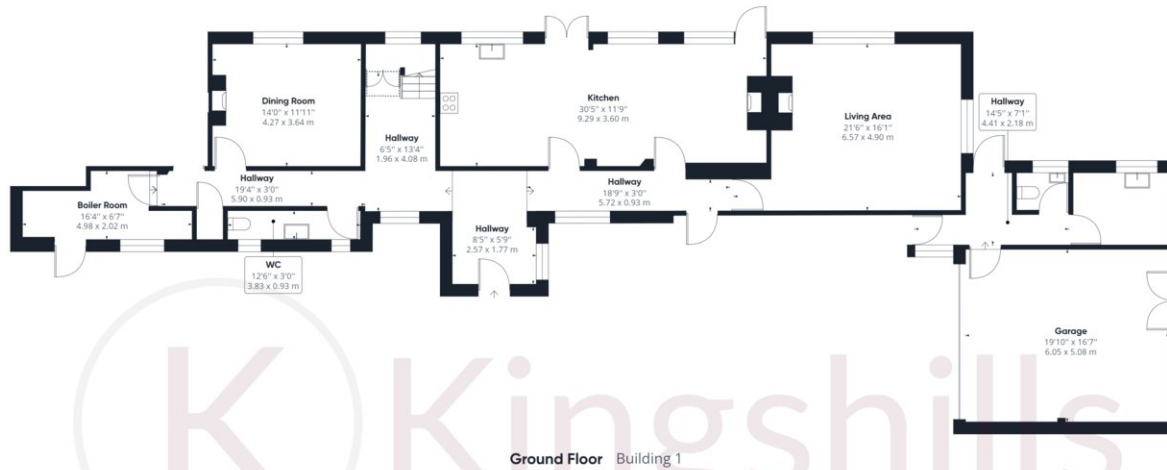

Accommodation

On the ground floor, there is a well-presented kitchen/breakfast room with views over the garden and wood burner, a dining room with an open fire, a large drawing room and a main living area with open fire. Downstairs also offers two WCs, boiler room, utility area and access to the garage. Upstairs offers a landing with access to the main bedroom with dressing area and an impressive en-suite shower room, three further double bedrooms and a bathroom.

Available to rent from 18th December.
