An imaginatively extended and superbly presented three bedroom family home positioned towards the end of a no through road in this highly sought after Cambridgeshire village. Viewing is advised to really appreciate this family home.
EPC: D

Guide Price: £325,000

Burwell is situated in pleasant countryside approximately eleven miles north east of the university city of Cambridge and some four and a half miles from the horse racing town of Newmarket. The village contains an interesting variety of properties ranging from period cottages to modern family houses and there is an excellent range of facilities including a primary school, doctors' surgery, dentist, various shops catering for everyday requirements, a church, public houses and a regular bus service. Burwell is particularly well located with good access to the A14 dual carriageway which interconnects with many of the regions traffic routes, principally the M11 motorway to London and the A11 to the east. There is a regular train service from Newmarket to Cambridge into London's Liverpool Street and King's Cross Stations.

Redesigned in recent years this really well presented and deceptively spacious semi detached house offers a sizeable open plan and re-fitted kitchen/family room, living room with multi fuel burner, gorgeous refitted bathroom and three generous sized bedrooms with an ensuite to the master.
