Only a short 10 Minute's drive from the centre of Caudete this completely private country Villa is situated in a small hamlet of buildings giving you the best of remote living with none of the security worries. This property is fully fenced and is entered via a large sliding steel gate. The garden has lots of trees, a garage, views, and a large plot of arable land for further vegetables and trees. There is an outside kitchen with a large fireplace/barbeque. The main patio is fully covered and gives you views across the valley, garden, and beyond to the mountain ridges. Inside there is an open-plan living space with a living room and dining area. The family bathroom has a toilet, basin, and shower. All 3 bedrooms are very good-sized doubles, in fact, two of the rooms currently have 2 double beds in them. The kitchenette whilst functional could easily be expanded at the expense of a few meter from the large bedroom next door.
