WICKEN is a charming village with very little modern development, many of the properties being of older style and character. It is conveniently situated for Ely (9 miles), Newmarket and Cambridge. The well known Wicken Fen is situated on the edge of the village and is preserved in its natural state by the National Trust.

No. 41 cannot, in fact, be seen from the road itself as it lies tucked away at the end of a long driveway in a super position backing on to farmland with wonderful views towards National Trust land beyond. It provides well proportioned accommodation which is presented to an extremely high standard throughout by the present owners. There is a large, gravelled frontage providing hard standing for several vehicles and wonderful gardens extending to three sides. The property is also offered for sale with the distinct advantage of No Upward Chain and an internal inspection would be highly recommended.
